

I am in complete support of the removal of the Morse Code requirements in Amateur radio. Although it is an excellent way to communicate when conditions are marginal, I believe it should be treated as a mode of operation instead of a requirement of licensing.

Randy KL7Z